Our Shaykh's Foreword (quote:)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

All praise be to Allaah, and peace and blessings of Allaah be upon His Messenger, our Prophet Muhammad, his Household and Companions.

Salmaan al-Faarisi of Esfahan in Iran (may Allaah be pleased with him) left his home and forsook his kith and kin in search of truth, and travelled far and wide for its sake.

His journey ultimately ended in Madinah, where he met the Prophet ﷺ and became his sahaabiyy.

The vivid account of his eventful life which is both interesting and instructive makes an excellent reading for the non-native students of the Arabic language.

Those who have completed the Madinah Arabic Course can easily follow this hadiith.

Three useful aids have been added to help the reader fully comprehend the text.

These are:

- a) A complete translation of the hadiith which has been placed facing the Arabic text.
- b) Copious lexical and grammatical notes.
- c) Multifarious exercises.

It is earnestly hoped that readers will be benefited by this humble effort, in shaa' Allaah.

May Allaah subhānahu wa ta'aalaa help us all to serve the language of His Glorious Book.
