

Study Arabic Philology

« الْقَوْلُ الْأَصِيلُ
فيما
في الْعَرَبِيَّةِ مِنَ الدَّخِيلِ »

« مُعْجَمُ الدَّخِيلِ
في
اللُّغَةِ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ الْحَدِيثَةِ
وَلَهْجَاتِهَا »

لفضيلة الشيخ الدكتور ف. عبد الرحيم

- A profound dictionary on etymology, phonetics and linguistics.
- Enter a vast garden of specialised knowledge that will especially rivet the interest of every Arabic student, teacher and researcher.
- Discover the etymology of over 1600 non-Arabic words that have entered modern Arabic and become Arabic-ized, discussed in a clear, non-technical style.
- Discover hundreds of pleasantly humorous facts and the ability to finely understand modern Arabic dialects.
- Discover how the Arabs across the Arab world pronounce the same loan word with varying, phonetic modifications according to their region and dialect.
- Discover the host of languages from which loanwords are discussed including English, French, Italian, Greek, Turkish, Persian, Urdu.
- Benefit from our Shaykh's vast expertise of foreign languages combined with over 50 years of teaching Arabic to non-natives, along with his residing amongst Arabs in many Arab countries studying first-hand their language and dialects.

● This specialised dictionary also discusses the etymology, phonetics and linguistics of loanwords in Classical Arabic from a host of languages.

Colour-coded print. Hard-back cover. Beautiful design. Published by Dār al-Qalam, Syria.