

Study Arabic Philology

«الْقَوْلُ الْأَصِيلُ»
فيما
في الْعَرَبِيَّةِ مِنَ الدَّخِيلِ»

«مُعْجَمُ الدَّخِيلِ»
في
اللُّغَةِ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ الْحَدِيثَةِ
وَلَهْجَاتِهَا»

لفضيلة الشيخ الدكتور ف. عبد الرحيم

- A profound, specialised dictionary on etymology, phonetics and linguistics.
- The etymology of over 1600 non-Arabic words that have entered modern Arabic and become Arabic-ized, are discussed in a clear, non-technical style.
- Discover how the Arabs in the whole Arab world pronounce the same foreign word with varying, fine, phonetic modifications according to their region and dialect.
- Discover hundreds of pleasantly humorous facts and the ability to understand modern Arabic dialects.
- Host of languages discussed from which loanwords are taken, including: English, French, Italian, Greek, Turkish Persian, Urdu.
- Our Shaykh's expertise of foreign languages combined with 50 years of teaching Arabic, along with living amongst Arabs in many Arab countries - studying their language and dialects - invites the reader into a vast garden of fascinating, specialised knowledge.
- Two-colour print, hard-back cover, beautiful design.
Published by Dār al-Qalam, Syria.

• This dictionary discusses the etymology, phonetics and linguistics of loanwords in Classical Arabic from a host of languages likewise.

