

اللغة العربية

بَابُ «تَفَعَّلَ»

Question

I have a question on verb form 5 تَفَعَّلَ.

Could you explain why in some cases there are two tā's in the muḍāriʿ, and at times one tā'?

Is this for style or for grammar?

Faḍīlat al-Shaykh Dr. V. Abdur Rahim (حفظه الله) replies:

The two bābs تَفَعَّلَ and تَفَاعَلَ commence with a tā'.

In the muḍāri' when the حَرْفُ الْمُضَارَعَةِ is also tā', two *tā'*s come together, e.g.:

لَا تَتَجَسَّسْ

أَنْتُمْ تَتَعَاوَنُونَ

As it is difficult to pronounce the combination of two *tā'*s, one of them may be omitted.

This is only optional.

This subject has been discussed in Madinah Book 3 in Lessons 20 and 21.

والسلام

abdur rahim