التقاء الساكنين

Question

Respected Shaikh, السلام عليكم

We know that a نَاقِص word shows its yā' at the end when it is مُضَاف.

What vowel should we use at the end of a nāqish muḍāf, followed by هَمْزَةُ الْوَصْلِ, to avoid التقاء الساكنين?

Examples:

. وَادِي الْعَقِيقِ، مُحْيِي الدِّينِ

جزاك الله خيراً

Faḍīlat al-Shaykh Dr. V. Abdur Rahim (حفظه الله) replies:

وعليكم السلام

وَأَدِي الْعَقِيقِ is pronounced وَادِ الْعَقِيقِ wādi l-‘aqīq

for the original:

وَأَدِي الْعَقِيقِ wādi l-‘aqīq.

The yā' is dropped in pronunciation because of التقاء الساكنين.

In the same way, مُحْيِي الدِّينِ is pronounced:

مُحْيِي الدِّينِ muḥyi ddīn

for the original:

مُحْيِي الدِّينِ muḥyii ddīn.

Please note that the verb is called نَاقِصٌ, and the noun derived from it is called مَنقُوصٌ.

Hope this has helped you.

والسلام
