pg 60, the Shaykh says:

Could you please explain what this means.

2. In the same مُقَدَّمَة , it says regarding the exercises:

Fadīlat al-Shaykh Dr. V. Abdur Rahim (حفظه الله) replies:

Dear Br Muhammad

وعليكم السلام

means that the statement is divided into its logical parts or components.

This refers to the use of punctuation marks.

The passage goes on to say:

«by placing between its parts that which denotes connection, separation, interrogation, exclamation, quotation, etc».

2. وَعَبَ يَعبُ means to take something completely.

The  $b\bar{a}b$  x اسْتَوْعَبَ يَسْتَوْعبُ اسْتِيعَاباً also has the same meaning.

The mașdar اسْتيعَاب is used nowadays to mean comprehension, i.e., full understanding of the text or the lesson.

Hope this has helped you.
